Mini Biography

Mark Zella was born in the UK and joined the British Royal Marines when he was 19, later transferring to the United States Marine Corps as part of an exchange program. He was assigned to a high-speed reconnaissance unit, where he performed all of the stuff famed in movies (skydiving, repelling, SPI rigging, espionage, evasion & maneuver, and so on) While serving, Mark was accepted to an elite, officer training program whereupon he attended The Citadel and subsequently graduated Summa Cum Laude, with Honors, at the top of his class, as an Electrical Engineer.

After leaving the service, Mark relocated to the west coast, graduated from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts and has been pursuing acting ever since. Mark's involved in financing several films in addition to writing many shorts and two feature length films.

Of Mark's professionalism and knowledge, co-workers state that Mark is truly an asset to any production, be it as an actor, writer or producer.

"I do not have enough good things to say about Mark and his services. He played all the music we requested, but surprised us with a few songs / routines that the guests loved...and have now become part of my favorite memories. The price was also VERY reasonable."
